Last year we looked at all of the other resorts in the area and this one "Stage Couch Bring lunch and extra water, chairs, basic tools, Flashlight, shovel, camera, extra weather appropriate clothing, etc. The weather changes quickly please be prepared.
Cautions:	(Examples) Fire Danger, Rattlesnakes, and Weather.
Trail Rating:	(1=Easy, 5=Most Difficult) Yes and Yes. We have seen a stock TJ and JK roll through all these trails and make it, this does not me they did it unscathed, it was tough going but all made it. If you have not seen the posts from last year when our beloved Pres attempted the Squeeze, give it a look, nasty, hardly describes it. But with the right spotters all will make it through the trail and on to Victory Lane, LOL Just kidding, we will challenge your driving skills on this one, of this you can be assured. It is not so much difficult as it is tight, Steep, High, Waterfalls and lots and lots of rocks. But the views of the valley are amazing, and the camp fires are warm, the food is great, and the stores are long.
Day Two	5=Most Difficult This trail will be led by Josh and Raelene. The Canyon is amazing and difficult, Lockers are strongly advised, Clearance 2 to 4 in lifts would also be advised. However, with that said, I ran this trail for a few years without lockers, but I did have my lift. So, depending on how built up your rig is, will determine how far back you get to go.
