Black Canyon is a sandy wash that skirts the edge of the Black Canyon Wilderness area northwest of Barstow, home to desert sheep. The trail types in the Black Canyon area include sandy washes, some moderate rocky sections and steep hill climbs.

This is an easy trail with some mildly moderate sections. There are several points of interest in this area. This area has many Indian petroglyphs with the most at one of our stops at Inscription Canyon. Another stop will be Murphy's well, an impressive display of Indian Petroglyphs. We will also stop at Scout's Cove, a small shelter cut into the side of a hill by miners in the Fire Opal Mining Camp. We will also stop at the Indian caves.

Special Equipment Required: None. Any stock 4 wheel drive vehicle with good low range gears can run this trail.

Reminder to Bring: Camera, Warm clothing (check weather forecast), Chair, Lunch, Water, etc.

Lunch: We will stop for lunch along the trail.
