Bailey Canyon Road is an easy scenic route from Devore up to Silverwood Lake then east to Lake Arrowhead via Pilot Rock Road. We all began at McDonald's off Highway 15 at the Sierra offramp where we held our drivers meeting.

Made a short hop over to the trailhead where we got aired down.

Trail Conditions were good on all trails / roads traversed. Lots of Side by Sides sharing the road with us made for some tight squeezes to get by.

Navigational faux pas... I sent several of us up a powerline road that forced three of us to do multipoint U turns to return to the prescribed route. Thanks to guest Aaron for catching the error and getting us back on track. Handed over lead position to Ryan for a while.

I really need to get a better Nav for the jeep!

Lunch was enjoyed at a wide spot along 2N33.

Smooth sailing the rest of the way with a few fun offshoots up 2N33 then back down civilization by 03:00pm
